

For Immediate Release
June 4, 2019

Berkshire Bank's Christina Andreoli honored as 'Power 50' by Worcester Business Journal

WORCESTER, MA (June 4, 2019) – Berkshire Bank is proud to announce that Christina Andreoli, SVP, Private Banking, has been honored by the Worcester Business Journal with the Power 50 award. Recipients of the award are considered one of the 50 most influential people in Central Massachusetts and are selected based on not only their impact on the local economy but on how they give back to the community.

“This is a well-deserved accomplishment for Christina,” stated Susan Yahn DiPinto, SVP, Private Banking. “She is influential in helping our customers and in the community through the many volunteer programs that she is involved. We’re proud to have her on our team.”

Christina joined Berkshire Bank in 2017 when the bank acquired Commerce Bank and has more than 20 years of experience in banking. In the past, she worked for the City of Worcester and the Worcester Regional Chamber of Commerce where she helped to establish the Discover Central Massachusetts tourism agency. Christina is a graduate of Syracuse University and regularly volunteers for Girls on the Run, the Massachusetts Women’s Political Caucus and Notre Dame Academy.

###

ABOUT BERKSHIRE BANK

Berkshire Bank is recognized for its entrepreneurial approach, relationship customer experience, and distinctive culture embracing and celebrating the diversity of all customers, employees and, suppliers - as its commitment to diversity continues to grow. With $13.9 billion in assets, Berkshire provides business and consumer banking, mortgage, wealth management, investment and, insurance services through 132 branch offices in New York, Connecticut, Vermont, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Massachusetts, including Commerce Bank, a division of Berkshire Bank. Berkshire Hills Bancorp (NYSE: BHLB) is the parent of Berkshire Bank. Berkshire Bank was named one of Massachusetts' Most Charitable Companies by the Boston Business Journal in 2018. To learn more, visit www.berkshirebank.com, call 800-773-5601 or follow us on: Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and, LinkedIn. Berkshire Bank is the official bank of NESN's Boston Bruins coverage. Life is Exciting. Let us help®

Media Contact

Cassandra Giovanni
Corporate Communications Manager
O: 860-465-8659
C: 860-428-9561